Coffman Engineers Launches New Website

New Website Serves as the Initial Touch Point to Validate Capabilities and Apply for a Job

SEATTLE, Washington, February 20, 2020 -- Coffman Engineers, Inc., a multidiscipline engineering consulting firm, is pleased to announce the launch of its newly redesigned website at www.coffman.com.

Coffman's new website was built with clients and job applicants in mind. It also features a new look consistent with Coffman's brand refresh which includes contemporary design elements, video, and new photography. The site is designed to convey Coffman's strategic differentiators as well as their diverse service offerings.

"The new website is the backbone of our online presence and as Coffman focuses on strategic growth, this is a critical tool that is equally important for marketing and recruiting," said Skip Bourgeois, VP of Marketing.

Unique site features include an enhanced careers area that integrates an online applicant tracking platform, better navigation and filtering of Coffman's many services, industries, and portfolio, and an area that highlights the company's advantages and differentiators.

"Our website visitors will enjoy mobile functionality, easy navigation, and filtering to view our services, industries, and project portfolio. Job seekers will also find a comprehensive careers area that allows them to have all the information to apply online or be notified about potential positions," said Bourgeois.

Coffman's new website allows the company to scale as they grow and will be updated on a regular basis with company news, projects, and new services. Visitors are encouraged to explore the new website at www.coffman.com.
